Towards Collective Action: Africa's Path to Implementing the Lusaka Agenda

What does it take to transform health outcomes across an entire continent? The African region's proactive stance in realizing the Lusaka Agenda provides the answer. The Africa Regional Roadmap on the Lusaka agenda, set to be unveiled at the WHO Africa Region's Regional Committee meeting in August 2024, underscores the power of collective action. It's a clarion call for governments, regional bodies, Global Health Initiatives (GHIs), development partners, Civil Society Organizations (CSOs), and the learning community to realize the vision of the Lusaka agenda, driving global health transformation.
